10. The Trustees of the Plaintiff Funds bring this action in their collective names or, as necessary or appropriate, in the name of the respective trusts or plans, and their participants, and beneficiaries pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17.

11. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant New York Chutes, LLC (“NY Chutes”), has been an employer within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 152(2) and Section 3(5) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1002(5), and has been engaged in an industry affecting commerce within the meanings of Sections 3(11) and (12) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1002(11) and (12). Upon information and belief, at all times relevant to this action, Defendant has been incorporated in the state of Delaware with a principal place of business at 5 Honeyman Road, Lebanon, NJ 08833.

Factual Background

12. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant employed employees represented for the purposes of collective bargaining by the International Association of Sheet Metal, Air, Rail and Transportation Union (formerly known as the Sheet Metal Workers' International Association), Local Union 28 ("Local 28" or the "Union"), a labor organization representing employees in an industry affecting interstate commerce.

13. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant was signatory to, and bound by, a collective bargaining agreement ("Agreement" or "CBA") with the Union. Pursuant to the Agreement, Defendant is obligated to submit monthly remittance reports and fringe benefit contributions to NPF, ITI, SASMI, SMOHIT, and NEMIC for all hours worked or paid on behalf of Defendant's covered employees within the jurisdiction of Local 28.

14. Article III, Section 2 (A) of the Agreement expressly prohibits Defendant from subcontracting any covered work to employers outside the collective bargaining unit.

15. Further, pursuant to the Agreement, Defendant is obligated to abide by the terms and conditions of the Trust Agreements establishing the Funds, including any amendments thereto and policies and procedures adopted by the Boards of Trustees ("Trust Documents").

16. Payments due to the Funds are calculated separately for each Fund on remittance reports required to be prepared monthly by each contributing employer. This is a self-reporting system and the Funds rely on the honesty and accuracy of the employers in reporting hours worked and paid, and in reporting the contributions owed for work by employees.

17. The completed remittance reports and accompanying contribution payments must be submitted to the Funds no later than the twentieth (20th) day after the end of each month during which covered work was performed and are delinquent if received thereafter.

18. Article V, Section 3 of the governing Trust Agreement and Section V of NPF's Procedures for the Collection of Contributions both provide that the Funds may audit a contributing employer for the purposes of assuring the accuracy of reports and ensuring that such employer has remitted the appropriate amount of contributions to the Funds.

19. Pursuant to Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132 and 1145, the Agreement, the Trust Documents, and Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185, if Defendant fails to timely submit the contractually required remittance reports and contribution payments, and the Funds file a lawsuit to recover the unpaid contributions, Defendant is required to pay the following amounts to the Funds:

a. Interest on the delinquent contributions at a rate of .0233% per day, compounded daily;

b. Liquidated damages equal to the greater of: fifty dollars ($50.00) or ten percent (10%) of the contributions due for each month of contributions that the Company fails to pay within 30 days after the due date, but pays before any lawsuit is filed;

c. Liquidated damages equal to the greater of interest on the delinquent contributions at the above rate or liquidated damages equal to twenty percent (20%) of the delinquent contributions owed upon commencement of litigation; and

d. The attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Funds in pursuing the delinquent amounts, including the attorneys' fees and costs in this action.

20. For the months of July 2016 through December 2020, a payroll audit of NY Chutes demonstrates that Defendant employed employees within the jurisdiction of Local 28 for whom contributions were owed to the Funds and failed to make all the required contributions, despite its obligation to do so. In addition, the audit shows that Defendant violated the terms of the Agreement by subcontracting covered work to employer(s) outside of the collective bargaining unit. As a result, Defendant owes contributions to the Funds under the Agreement, Trust Documents, Section 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1145, and Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185.

Count I

Amounts Owed Pursuant to Audit

21. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate Paragraphs 1 through 20.

22. This claim arises under Sections 502(a)(3) and 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3) and 1145, and Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185.

23. Defendant is obligated, under the terms of the Agreement, to provide contributions to the Funds on behalf of its covered employees. In addition, Article II, Section 2(A) of the Agreement, expressly prohibits Defendant from subcontracting any covered work to employer(s) not in the collective bargaining unit. Defendant has failed and refused to fulfill its contractual obligations for owed contributions and by subcontracting covered work as demonstrated by a payroll audit conducted on Defendant by the Funds for the period of July 2016 through December 2020.

24. A plan may seek damages for an employer's violation of a subcontracting provision. See Walsh v. Schlecht, 429 U.S. 401, 407 (1977). In such circumstances, the Funds calculate the required payments due from the delinquent employer measured by the hours worked by the subcontractor's employees, regardless of whether the subcontractor's employees benefit from such payments. See id. at 407; see also Sheet Metal Workers' Health & Welfare Fund of N.C. v. Stromberg Metal Works, Inc., No. 5:21-CV-101-BO, 2021 BL 362052, at *10 (E.D.N.C. Sept. 22, 2021).

25. As such, Defendant owes contributions, interest, and liquidated damages to the Funds for its failure to fulfil its contractual obligations. While contributions remain unpaid, interest continues to accrue on these delinquent contributions and audit fees have been assessed pursuant to the Funds' governing documents.

26. Specifically, the audit revealed that NY Chutes owes contributions in the amount of $74,258.64 for the period of July 2016 through December 2020. In addition to the contribution amounts found due, NY Chutes owes $26,008.64 in interest (calculated through December 2, 2022), $26,008.64 in liquidated damages, and $1,845.00 in audit testing fees. In total, NY Chutes owes $128,120.93 to the Funds for unpaid contributions, interest, liquidated damages, and testing fees.

27. Under Section 502(g) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g), Plaintiffs are entitled to recover all costs of this action from Defendant, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs.

28. Prior to commencing this lawsuit, the Funds sent letters and attempted to directly contact Defendant to obtain the outstanding contributions from Defendant. Despite these efforts, Defendant has not resolved its delinquency. There is little prospect that, lacking judicial compulsion, Defendant will satisfy its obligations to the Funds, and pay the delinquent and unpaid contributions, liquidated damages, interest, and testing fee due.

29. Defendant's continued failure to pay the amounts due have caused irreparable harm to the plan participants in the form of loss of earnings and expenses of the Funds, endangered the eligibility of covered members' pension benefits, and other harm. Defendant's failure and refusal to comply with its obligations creates an atmosphere in the industry that encourages other employers to do the same.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request a judgment against Defendant for all amounts and reports due to the Funds as follows:

1. Declare that Defendant is delinquent in remitting owed contributions to the Funds pursuant to the Agreement;
2. Declare that Defendant violated the subcontracting provision of the Agreement and owes contributions to the Funds;
3. Award Plaintiffs on behalf of the Funds a judgment for Defendant's delinquent contributions found to be due by the audit for the period of July 2016 through December 2020 in the total amount of $74,258.64;
4. Enter judgment against Defendant for interest on all delinquent contributions at a rate of 0.0233% per day, compounded daily, from the date due until the date paid or the date of the judgment in the amount of at least $26,008.64;
5. Enter judgment against Defendant for liquidated damages in an amount equal to the greater of interest on the delinquent contributions calculated at the above rate, or 20% of the delinquent contributions in the amount of at least $26,008.64;
6. Enter judgment against Defendant for audit testing fees in the amount of $1,845.00;
7. Enter judgment for all attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Funds in pursuing the delinquent amounts as provided by Section 502(g) of ERISA; and
8. Award such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,
